

I live in Austin TX and we recently have had the benefit of the syndicate radio programming K-love. Our local Christian radio is not adequate to meet our needs as Christians, this new option has made a world of difference to our family. Removal of K-Love by an LPFM providing alternate programming would effect the faith community in a very real and tangible way. The service provided by K-Love is in the best public interest in the Austin area as it provides very positive and encouraging radio that the whole family can enjoy...
